How long do power reclining sofas last? Purchasing a power reclining sofa is an excellent investment for your home - if taken care of properly, these sofas can last upwards of 10-15 years. To maximise the lifespan of your power reclining sofa, be sure to clean it on a regular basis to reduce the accumulation of grime in between the cushions.

You could manually recline your chair and relax while watching your favorite shows, but with new technology, you can now do this with electrical power. There are many ways a power reclining sofa works depending on the brand and the style. Using electricity, a motor assists the sofa to recline or position the chair at whatever level you decide.
